

Test 1

What do plants have to do with reading? Roots! In both plants and reading, everything grows from roots. Learn these roots and watch your vocabulary grow.

Directions: Match each word on a leaf to the root from which it grew. Write the letter of the root on the leaf.

ROOT WORDS

- | | | |
|---------------------------|----------------------|------------------|
| A. dict-say; speak | E. gram-draw; write | I. cred-believe |
| B. auto-self | F. loc-place | J. cent-hundred |
| C. dem-people; population | G. terra-earth; land | K. aqua-water |
| D. fort-strong | H. man-hand | L. liber-to free |

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answers

century, J; manufacture, H; democracy, C; fortify, D terrarium, G; relocate, F; aquatics, K; telegram, E autograph, B; predict, A; incredible, I; liberty, L.

1. The church was built in the 13th century.
2. The fridge was sent back to the manufacturers.
3. I thought we were supposed to be living in a democracy.
4. He fortified himself against the cold with a hot drink.
5. I think you should have a glass terrariums to create your own miniature green space indoors.

A terrarium

6. The residents were relocated to temporary accommodation while the work was being done.
7. A new aquatics (water sport) centre is planned as well.
8. The telegram came on a grey, chilly April day.
9. Too many kids waiting for autographs.
10. Sales were five percent lower than predicted (forecasted).
11. I find it almost incredible (unbelievable) that no one noticed these errors.
12. Any law that increases police power may be seen as a threat to individual liberty (freedom).