

Test 9

For a clear understanding of a situation, try to visualize the scene in your mind.

Directions: For each situation below, draw a brief cartoon. Then write a couple of sentences describing the action. Remember to use proper punctuation marks.

1. Draw a dentist working on a patient's mouth.
What would the dentist say to the patient?

2. Draw a captain and his crew during a storm.
What would the captain say to his crew?

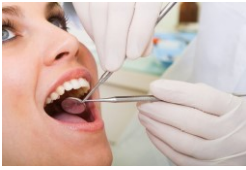

3. Draw a chef cooking a special meal.
What would a chef say to describe his meal?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answers

1.

Sandra: Well, it's been a while to be honest, but the pain has been recent.
Dentist: Okay, please don't talk and hold still... Dentist: Yes, it looks like you have a cavity... and some plaque built up as well. We'll clean that today, but you'll have to come back to get that cavity fixed on another day.

2.

Dear friends, please do not panic...

3.

We are cooing a delicious meal today.....