

Test 6

Directions: Use the clues to help you finish each sentence correctly.

- praise given as a result of an action
- to carry or bring in
- able to act independently
- to leave or empty out
- able to use both hands with equal skill
- one who is new at doing something
- to enact into law
- one that resists; enemy

1. If ambivalence means having two opposing feelings, then ambidextrous means

_____

2. If portable means able to be carried, then import means

_____

3. If compliance is the act of fulfilling a requirement, then a compliment is

_____

4. If automatic means able to work on its own, then autonomy means

_____

5. If novel means new or not known before, then a novice is

_____

6. If illegal means against the law, then legislate means

_____

7. If vacant means unoccupied or empty, then evacuate means

_____

8. If adverse means opposed to one's interest, then adversary means

_____

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answers

1. able to use both hands with equal skill.

2. to carry or bring in.

3. praise given as a result of an action.

4. able to act independently.

5. One who is new at doing something.

6. To enact into law.

7. To leave or empty out.

8. One that resists; enemy.